

FareShare in the Classroom

Whose kitchen is this anyway?

We are so glad you can join us in the kitchen at FareShare! But before you walk through those doors and don your apron, we thought you might like to know a little about who it is you will be volunteering for and why your help is so important.

Your Tasks:

 Watch the introductory video 'Schools in the Kitchen' and use this information as well as the FareShare website (fareshare.net.au) to answer the questions below.

 Who is FareShare and what do they do?

To watch the introductory video please go to <http://schools.fareshare.net.au>

What kind of organisation is FareShare?

- a) Corporation
- b) Not-for-profit
- c) Family Trust
- d) Church group

In one sentence, describe what FareShare does.

---

---

Who do we help? Find a story on our website that describes a person who has eaten our meals. Why did they need our food?

---

---

---

---

How do people access FareShare meals?

- a) They come to our Abbotsford Kitchen where we serve the meals
- b) They take one home with their local charity's food hamper service
- c) They grab one on the street from the local soup van
- d) It is served in the free sit-down lunch service run by their church group

 Where does the food come from?

List three types businesses/sources of food and the food they donate to FareShare:

	Business name	Product donated
1.
2.
3.

What is a 'Good Samaritan Law'? Explain why this is important to businesses that donate food.

---

---

---

What is an example of a large/strange donation we have received and what did we make with it?

 What kind of food do we cook?

List three different meals made in the FareShare kitchen

1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____

How much does one FareShare meal cost to make?

- a) $5.00
- b) $2.50
- c) $1.00
- d) 75c

 Who works at FareShare?

 What does it mean to volunteer at FareShare?

Gardening, driving, cooking, cleaning, IT, administration, making friends

Hopefully you now feel like you know us all a little better. And please, if you have questions you want to ask we would love to answer them when you come in to cook with us.

So thank you for making a difference, and we look forward to seeing you in the kitchen!